L: Early on the first day of the week, the women went to the tomb.

L: They went to fulfill their obligations, the expectations of their faith.

P: They never expected what they would find: an empty tomb.

L: They never expected an earthquake, or angels, or Christ himself.

P: We come with our expectations, our emptiness, and our hopes.

L: We come with the crosses we have carried, the stones that block our way.

P: We come to meet the Christ and to hear his greeting.
